Fr. Geff Says

Dearest Parishioners,

I would like to take this time to wish you all a happy 4th of July. I know many of you will be visiting out of town relatives and I pray you all have a safe trip.

On Independence Day, we remember names like Washington, Adams, and Jefferson. We honor their courage and vision. We are thankful that this nation under God is still free, independent, and the best hope of mankind. We are caring toward neighbors in need and generous to the sick and struggling. We are a good hearted country. May liberty and human dignity flourish.

I would also like to say congratulations to the new elected members of PCCW. Sandy McClintock has been elected President for another year. Paula Tuck and Mary Jones will be the Vice Presidents and Sandra Oberley, Secretary. Thank you women for all your hard work.

We would also like to welcome Father Joseph Adreade this week. He is a Salesian Missionary who will be visiting with us. Please keep him in your thoughts and prayers this week.

Please remember this Friday is first Friday. We will be having Mass and Potluck to follow. I look forward to seeing many of you there.

Peace be with you,
Father Geff
